

FOR PRESIDENT IN 1888,

JAMES G. BLAINE, OF MAINE.

Subject to the decision of the Republican National Convention.

"We always have the American flag above us and not below us."—James G. Blaine.

CONDITION OF THE STATE.

Nevada is not only holding its own, but shows gradual improvement, and is destined to receive its proportion of the "boom" which is rolling along all over the entire Pacific coast. Everywhere the people of the State are rejoicing at better times, and the flattering prospects of the future. Millions have been contributed from our mines, but the mountains and hills yet contain many millions, and the outlook for a largely increased output is brighter than it has been for years. The old and still favorite Comstock is again on the eve of important developments, and the time is near at hand for the finding and extraction of bonanzas. The prospects at Tuscarora are bright. Some rich discoveries have lately been made in White Pine, Lincoln and Nye counties. Humboldt continues to produce its share, and is doing lively prospecting for more. Eureka, Austin and down in Esmeralda the work of production progresses satisfactorily. Almost everywhere the pick and drill are in use, and from ten millions per annum the yield is soon likely to increase fifty per cent. Our cattle and sheep are doing well on the green grass of the hills and this industry is in splendid condition. The farmers are happy and year by year the agricultural area of the State becomes greater. It will not be very long before there will be new railroad work inaugurated and within two or three years the people will not be at the mercy of one road. Nevada will grow up with the country.

CLIMATIC PECULIARITIES.

The Meteorological Review has the following concerning California's climate: "The State of California has numerous climatic peculiarities that excite surprise in the minds of visitors. Her territory extends through ten degrees of latitude, but the mean temperature or rainfall at any given point is not to be determined by its latitude. The Sierra Nevada Range of mountains on the east, and the Coast Range on the west, unite to form a great interior valley 350 miles in length. The southern portion of this great basin is drained by the San Joaquin river, and is known as the San Joaquin valley, and the northern portion, drained by the Sacramento river, is known as the Sacramento Valley. These rivers (one flowing northward, the other southward), unite in the heart of the State, and together their waters flow onward to the Golden Gate. The means of temperature at the different places in this interior basin do not vary to any material extent. The hills of the Coast Range and of the Sierra Nevada, to an elevation of two thousand or two thousand five hundred feet, have like thermometric conditions with the valley. But it is found that the rainfall varies more than the temperature, and, speaking generally, increases as each degree of latitude is gained, and with each 100 feet of elevation.

"The junction of the Coast Range and the Sierra Nevada, at the lower end of the great valley, form a transverse partition of the State, on the southern side of which lies what is known as Southern California, embraced in the counties of Los Angeles, San Bernardino and San Diego. Ventura and Santa Barbara counties, on the coast and west of Los Angeles, are usually included in the designation 'Southern California.' A glance at the map will show that these five counties, taken together, form but a relative small portion of the State. The great agricultural and horticultural region of California is the vast valley of the Interior, with its two broad belts of foothills, where the skies are brighter than in the coast counties, and where there is entire freedom from sea fogs that are common at San Diego, Los Angeles and Santa Barbara. The better portion of the State undoubtedly lies north of a line drawn from east to west midway between the southern and northern boundaries. The soil in the northern portion of the interior basin is fertile and the rainfall so abundant that both farmers and fruit growers can dispense with irrigation, and the climate is unsurpassed in the world, suited to the production of every variety of deciduous as well as citrus fruits."

President John Taylor of the Mormon Church who is hiding from the United States authorities, is reported to be lying at the point of death in his hiding-place in Salt Lake City.

DIAMONDS IN THEIR TEETH.

The Latest Fancy of Fashionable Young Women.

New York, July 17.—The Tribune's "Gossip" says: I was in a dental office up town the other day where a woman was seated in the chair, when I noticed a flashing light from the point of one of her front teeth, which struck me as being the reflected rays from a diamond. I said as much to the dentist, and he astonished me by saying: "That is just what it is. It is frequently the case that we have ladies come here whose front teeth are so badly injured that filling them with gold produces a disagreeable appearance. By putting in a small diamond with a gold setting the disfigurement is less noticeable. I had a remarkable case not long since. A wealthy California gentleman brought to me his daughter to have her teeth examined. One of the upper front teeth had a peculiar formation of pearl. The pearl was not complete, but was sufficiently defined and distinct so that there could be no mistake about it. The companion tooth was badly decayed, and the father desired to have a diamond set in it. The young lady is in New York at the present time, but is soon going abroad to finish her education."

A SENSATIONAL STORY.

Revival of Interest in the Death of Jennie Cramer.

NEW HAVEN, July 18.—Interest in the fate of Jennie Cramer, whose dead body was found at Sabine rock some years ago, has been revived in a sensational way, and the friends of the Malley brothers, who were charged with her murder, speak of them as martyrs of circumstantial evidence. The story is that Albert Fitzroy, who died in Holyoke, Mass., a few days ago, stated on his death-bed that Jennie Cramer committed suicide. He left home a week before Jennie Cramer's body was found floating in the surf, presumably to go to New York. Instead of going to New York he met a lady friend at the Holyoke depot and together they went to Sabine Rock, where he remained, and, as he states on his death bed, witnessed with his companion Jennie Cramer commit suicide. He attended the latter part of the trial of the Malley boys, ready, if they were found guilty, to get up and tell his story, which of course would have cleared them beyond doubt. As it was they were let go and Fitzroy went to Holyoke.

A BALLOON ACCIDENT.

Professor Chester Attempts an Ascension but Fails.

STOCKTON, July 17.—A man known as Professor Chester fell from a hot-air balloon this afternoon and was considerably bruised, but not dangerously injured. He had been engaged as an attraction to-day at Goodwater Grove, a short distance from this city. There was a fair-sized crowd. He did not want to make the ascension on account of the wind, but finally consented to go up. When he had reached an altitude of 50 feet the balloon struck a tree. Chester received a large gash in his forehead. An attempt was made to get him out of the tree when a limb broke and he fell to the ground. He fell on his left side and for a short time suffered from partial paralysis, but improved later and will probably recover.

Citizen Langtry Must Appear in Court in Person.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—Justice Field announced in the United States Circuit Court this morning that Mrs. Langtry would have to return to this city and appear in court in person if she desired to perfect her citizenship. Her declaration was made at her residence, and Justice Field thought there was no occasion for the removal of the books from the Court, and that there was a question as to the legality of the procedure.

The San Francisco Call observes: Of course, we are not saying that corruption does not prevail in old and populous States. We are only two well aware that it does. But in the large States it costs more to buy Senators; fewer men are able to compete; the chances of detection are greater; hence, the use of hoodlums is less universal. Senators are not sold in Massachusetts or Virginia. It is a fact worth noting to be elected in New York. It is in little States that candidates for the Senate must step up the captain's office or go ashore.

Del Monte now looms up through the trees in the old familiar fashion. The main building is being plastered and painted in some parts, and as fast as workmen can be spared they are placed upon the left annex, of which the foundations are completed.

It is said that Thurman declined to run for Governor of Ohio because the Payne men refused to contribute a cent to his campaign. The Standard Oil Trust seems to have no use for a man like Thurman.

Mattie Allen shot and killed James Patterson at Sacramento Saturday. She then took poison from which she died. Patterson had refused to marry her and cast her off.

Beautiful Boston Girls Photographed as Nature Made Them.

Boston, July 19.—Photographer Gertz, who was arrested at his South Boston studio for printing and selling obscene photographs, was brought up in Judge Fallon's Court yesterday and held in $1,000 bail for trial in the Superior Court. The hearing was private, and every effort was made to keep the attractive photographs out of the sight of the crowd which was present to hear the testimony and see the exhibits. It was generally understood that many girls in South Boston had visited photographic studios, and that their pictures were among those to be produced and put in evidence. But the expectations of the crowd were disappointed when the curious audience saw the prisoner and his counsel and the prosecuting officer, the latter carrying a big bundle of photographs and negatives, disappear in the seclusion of the Judge's private room. The photographs were produced and handed to His Honor Judge Fallon, who examined each one with much deliberation. The counsel for Gertz made no denial, but moved for the dismissal of the case on account of defects in the complaint. The reporter succeeded in obtaining a view of some of the interesting photographs, which rival the efforts of photographer Chickering from a truly artistic point of view. Mr. Chickering has the best colored pictures. He took his models from the aristocratic old families of Black Bay, and he was enabled to reproduce Greek statuary in living form and at the same time reflect the high degree of culture to which his patrons have attained. This very fact is the defense of the Commonwealth avenue young women, who say that a cultured mind clothes the nude human form with refined raiment which banishes all thoughts of immodesty.

Mr. Chickering posed his patrons in imitation of the graceful figures painted by old masters, and reproduced the statues and forms familiar to frequenters of art galleries. He relied upon the educated minds of his patrons to recognize the famous figures he had counterfeited and gave no explanatory notes. Photographer Gertz, however, posted neatly printed labels of explanations on the back of the pictures, and in some cases appended unnecessary comments. The pictures themselves are for the most part thoroughly artistic. The "Venus de Milo" has the broken arm replaced by one holding a small Eolian harp. The "Greek Slave" is a masterpiece, while Diana and her nymphs have a wealth of brown hair which might have been braided to make up for lack of wearing apparel but was not. Venus rising from the sea lacks the background of sky and water, but the general effect of her natural charms is not lost. In some others the attitude of the ballet are copied with less commendable artistic culture. One of the officers of this society told a reporter that many other fashionable photographers were doing the same thing and that they were being watched. He also said that half the girls of the best families of Boston had been recently photographed as nature made them.

An Oakland man lately returned from Los Angeles gives his experience of the boom down there to a Tribune reporter as follows: "A one-lungster is in the macerating grip of the boomster, and is being shown a strip of arid, simoom-swirled desert which he is solicited to purchase at $2,000 per acre. "But, man, what can you raise on that land?" "Raise? Why, you d—n fool; raise the price."

TESTIMONIAL.—I have been slowly going blind with granulated eye-lids and white spots forming on my eyes for the past seventeen years. I heard of Dr. Prentice at the Lake House, Reno, and rode over sixty miles on a mustang to see the Doctor. Dr. Prentice has now treated my eyes one week, and I can see better than I have in ten years, and read the newspaper again. Myself and other patients have persuaded Dr. Prentice to stay at Reno one week more until June 24th. ALBERT PICKEREL.

REMARKS AND CONDITIONS.

Nominations to stakes must be made to the Secretary on or before the first day of August, 1887. Entries for the purse must be made for Monday's races on the Saturday preceding, for Wednesday's races, on Monday, and for Friday's races, on Wednesday, at the regular time for closing entries as designated by the rules. Those who have nominated in stakes must name to the Secretary in writing which they will start the day before the race, at 6 P. M. Horses entered in purses can only be drawn by consent of the judges.

The rules of the Pacific Blood Horse Association will govern running races.

All horses entered for State purses must be owned and kept in Nevada and California, east of the Sierra Nevada, for six months prior to day of race.

Entries to all trotting races will close September 1st, with the Secretary.

Five or more to enter and three or more to start in all races for purses.

National Trotting Association Rules to govern trotting races. Pacific Coast Blood Horse Association Rules to govern running races, except as above.

All trotting and pacing races are the best three in five, unless otherwise specified, five to enter and three to start. But the Board reserves the right to hold a less number than five to all, by the withdrawal of a proportionate amount of the purse. Entrance fee, ten per cent, on purse, to accompany nomination.

National Trotting Association Rules to govern trotting, but the Board reserves the right to trot heats of any two classes alternately, if necessary to finish any day's racing, or to trot a special race between heats. A horse making a walk-over shall be entitled only to the entrance money paid in. When less than the required number of starters appear they may contest for the entrance money, to be divided as follows: 65% to the first and 35% to the second.

In all the foregoing stakes the declarations are void unless accompanied by the money.

Please observe that, in the above stakes, declarations are permitted for a small forfeit. In all races entries not declared out by 6 P. M. of the day preceding the race shall be required to start.

Where there is more than one entry by one person, or in one interest, the particular horse they are to start must be named by 6 P. M. of the day preceding the race. No added money can be in their entries.

Each day's races will commence promptly at one o'clock P. M.

All entries must be directly to C. H. Stoddard, Secretary of the Society.

EQUESTRIANISM.
Ladies' Grand Tournament for the most accomplished and graceful lady riders, Friday, Sept. 23, Wednesday, Sept. 28 and Friday, Sept. 30, at 10 o'clock A. M.

The Society offers four premiums, valued respectively at $100, $75, $50 and $25. The lady who is adjudged first shall have her choice of all premiums offered. The second lady shall have second choice, and so on.

Ladies wishing to compete for prizes will please send name to Secretary, indorsed by two members of the Society.

INDIAN PONY RACES.
On Thursday, Sept. 22d, Monday, Sept. 25th and Thursday, Sept. 29th the novelty of an Indian pony race will be provided, and the amusing sight of twenty or thirty noble red men of the forest, mounted on the wildest and most unmanageable cayuses imaginable, galloping around the track at breakneck speed, will, as they say at the circus, be alone worth the price of admission.

CLYDESDALE MEDALS.
The American Clydesdale Association will give a valuable medal, of suitable design, for the best recorded Clydesdale stallion, and a similar medal for the best recorded Clydesdale mare bred in Nevada, and exhibited at the State Fair of 1887.

BALLOON ASCENSIONS.
Arrangements have been made for a series of balloon ascensions during the Fair, alike novel and exciting. Ascensions will be made daily from the race-track.

BICYCLE RACES.
Two or three bicycle races will take place between the fastest wheelmen in the State, and fan contestants are counted upon.

Unlike any other part of the town this Addition faces the beautiful Truckee River and Riverside Avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. The streets are 80 feet wide, while Riverside and Keystone Avenues are intended to be 100 feet in width. All alleys are 20 feet wide. The soil is a rich gravelly loam, and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation. Being situated as it is it is more safe from fire than any other section. The regular lots are 50x140 feet. The sewerage is perfect.

Before Buying Elsewhere Parties will do Well to Look at These Lots.

PARKER'S MAP OF NEVADA.

PARKER'S NEW MAP OF NEVADA.

THIS NEW AND BEAUTIFUL

MAP OF THE STATE,

Has Just Been Published, and is Now Ready for Sale.

It has been completed with great care in order to make its being strictly correct, and furnishes a vast fund of valuable information regarding the topography of the State. There never has been a Map of the State prepared heretofore worthy of the name, and it is intended to fill a long-felt want on the part of citizens. It has been lithographed at large expense by the famous publishing house of Rand, McNally & Co., of Chicago, and does great credit to their well-known skill in the art. The Map is drawn on a scale of 12 miles to the inch, and shows all surveyed Townships up to date of issue, also all Mountain Ranges, Valleys, Rivers, Creeks, Brooks, Streams and Lakes; it also shows the correct position of all Indian and Military Reservations, and all Cities, Towns and Settlements; also all Railroads and the principal Wagon Roads. The County Boundaries are also depicted with absolute correctness, which is something that no other Map has even approximated to.

The Map is printed on the best of paper, and mounted with stick, top and bottom, with tape on edges and varnished; it is also printed on thin, strong paper, which folds up in stout covers for pocket form. The Counties are printed with different colors, making it altogether an ornament to any school house, office, saloon or private room, as well as valuable for instruction and reference.

The Map has been compiled by John W. Parker, the Chief Draughtsman of the United States Surveyor-General's Office at Reno, who holds the copyright, and is the condensation of all information on file in that office, as well as the celebrated War Department Maps prepared by Lieutenant Wheeler; he has also had at his command other recent and reliable data on which to rely, and the Map is issued to the public in the firm belief that it is in every way authentic.

The Price of the Map is $5.00, and copies will be sent to any address, postpaid, upon receipt of the money. Parties ordering will be careful to state which style is desired—mounted or pocket form.
